

I support strong net neutrality ruling under current title II oversight rulings of ISPs. These regulations are extremely important for securing fair competition online, and I truly wish to see it remain enacted!